B2B Lead Generation Framework

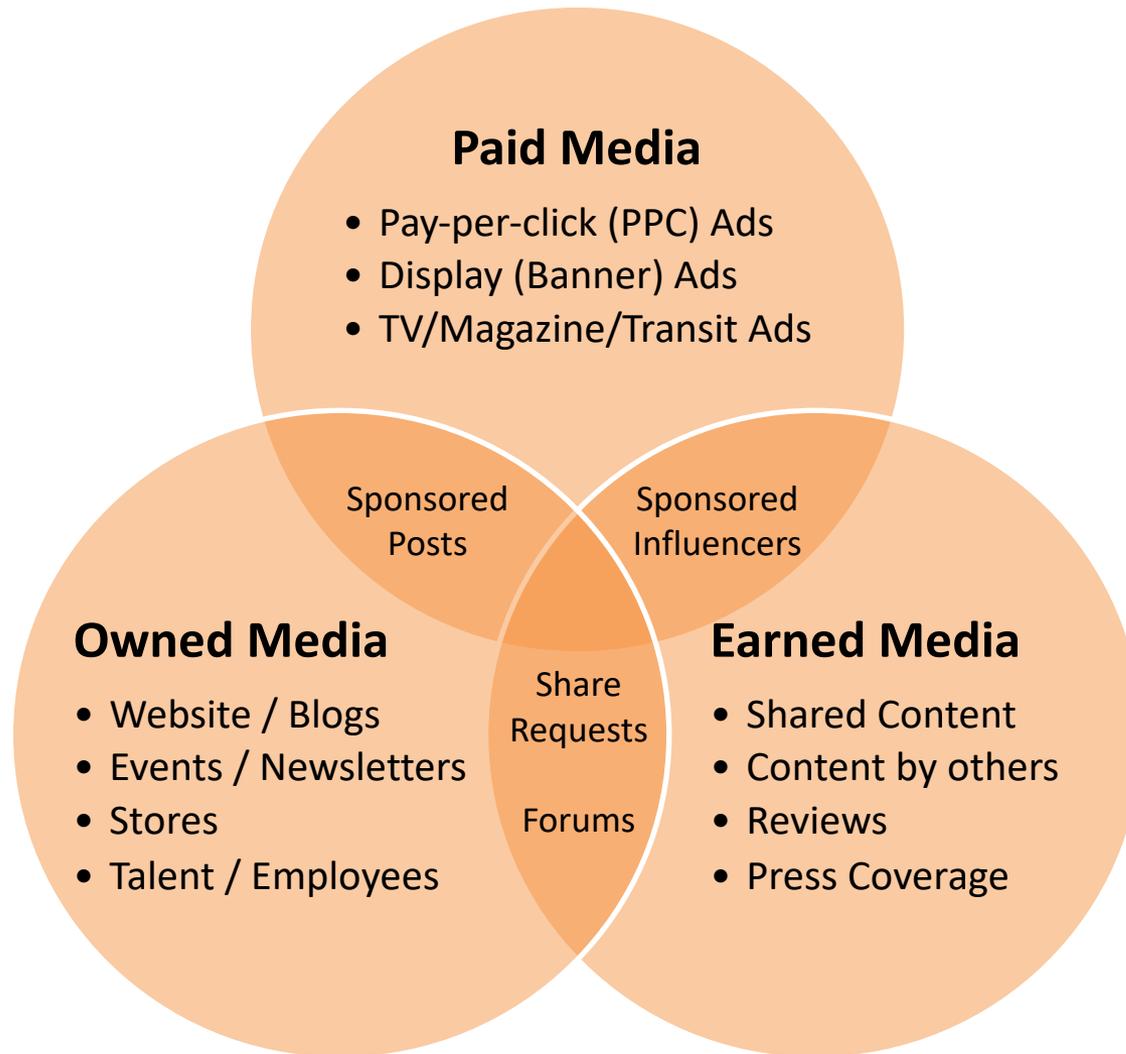

Develop Content / Lead Magnets

A “lead magnet” is a free item or service that is given away for the purpose of gathering contact details.

Types of Lead Magnets

- Educational lead magnets
Teach your visitors something they don't already know
- Useful lead magnets
Provide a tutorial, calculator, or other tool with which they can solve a problem
- Community-building lead magnets
Create a way for your audience to build a community based on the things they have in common, e.g., direct challenges and group forums
- Entertaining lead magnets
Inspire or entertain your audience, e.g., quizzes
- Bottom of funnel lead magnets
“Push” the visitor from lead to customer, e.g., free trial, discount codes, free consultation

The P.O.E.M Framework

Other LinkedIn 3rd -Party Tools

- Crystal – This browser extension looks at someone’s social media profile and gives you an idea of his or her personality. From there, Crystal gives you suggestions on how to communicate with that person.
- Discover.ly – With the Discoverly browser extension, you can see data from the other social media profiles about someone while viewing their LinkedIn page.
- Dux Soup – is another LinkedIn automation tool that helps you generate leads in many ways. With Dux-Soup, it's easy to find, attract, and engage with your prospects on LinkedIn.
- Expandi – Expandi can help you increase your list of contacts. It also automates responses, helps manage campaigns, and works with LinkedIn chat.
- Leadfuze - This lead generation tool helps you find leads from its over 200 million-strong database of professionals.
- Linked Helper - is a Chrome-based tool that helps find valuable leads without spending too much time and money. You can use it to automate your work within LinkedIn, Sales Navigator, and LinkedIn Recruiter (Full & Lite).
- Meet Alfred (formerly Leonard) – is one of the most sophisticated LinkedIn automation tools out there. Not only does it provide you with the best LinkedIn lead generation tools, but it also ensures that you do it cost-effectively.
- Phantombuster - is a content scraper that works with a wide variety of online platforms, including LinkedIn. You can also use it to automatically engage with social media posts, respond to messages, and accept connection requests, for instance.
- Zopto – is a LinkedIn outreach automation tool that mainly helps sales teams improve their lead generation efforts.

Anti-Spam Legislation

DIFFERENCES BETWEEN INTERNATIONAL ANTI-SPAM & DATA PROTECTION LAWS
	 CAN-SPAM	 CASL	 GDPR
PASSED	2003	2010	2016
ENFORCED	2004	2014	May 25, 2018
SCOPE	Any "commercial electronic mail messages" (emails).	Any "commercial electronic messages" (CEM), including email, SMS, audio and video, sent within Canada or messages routed through Canadian servers. Prohibits intrusive software like spyware and malware.	Similar to CASL but includes tough personal data protection safeguards that must be "built into products and services from the earliest stages of development."
PENALTIES	Up to $41,484 for each separate email in violation (inflation adjusted).	Up to $1 million fine for an individual and $10 million per business.	Up to 20 million Euros or 4% of annual global turnover.
PRIVATE RIGHT OF ACTION	"Internet access services" such as ISPs, MySpace and Facebook.	Individuals and businesses.	Individuals and businesses.
CONSENT RULES	OPT-OUT – you will continue receiving messages until you say no.	OPT-IN – you give verbal or written consent before you receive CEMs, with exception cases (an existing business relationship). For implied consent, you have a 2 year window to send CEMs; after which you have to renew the relationship.	OPT-IN – similar to CASL but extends opt-in rules to collection, sharing and processing of personal information. Requires renewed consent each time you want to use personal information in another way (with exceptions).

Spam Triggers

- Email Providers (ISP, Mailbox providers)
 - Analyze your usage (open rate, hovering, reporting)
- Don'ts
 - All caps
 - “Spammy” content
 - High image/content ratio
 - Poor HTML coding
 - Exclamation marks
 - Embedded forms
 - Keyword stuffing
 - Videos (+/-)
 - Attachments (+/-)

Email Marketing Do's

- Keep your list current and clean
 - Spam traps
 - Non-pristine
A non-pristine spam trap is an email address that used to be valid but is no longer in use. A spam reporting agency will collect these defunct email addresses to determine which email senders continue to send emails months or years after the email has gone dark.
 - Pristine
A pristine spam trap is an email address that was never used by anyone but is set up by a spam reporting agency to lure spam emails.
 - “Graymail” – low engagement rates
 - ⇒ segment out and target using a re-engagement campaign
- Offer double opt-in
- Provide clear unsubscribe directions and a physical address
- Offer both HTML / plain text versions
- Give the option to view the email in a web browser

Email Marketing Do's

- Use a familiar sender name
- Personalize the “To” field
- Leverage the preview / preheader text to increase open rates

On the other hand,
the average open
rate for a welcome
email is

82%

Triggered Emails (Lead Nurturing)

- Onboarding
 - Login Details
 - Offer coupons? Pros / Cons?
 - Usage milestones
- Abandoned Cart
 - Remind customer of product
 - Coupons? Pros and cons?
- In-store purchase
 - Receipt
 - Complementary products
- Past “purchase” / conversion
 - Provide a review
 - Provide feedback on the experience / product

Triggered Emails - Considerations

- Which triggered emails to include.
An automated drip campaign typically runs 3 to 5 emails. Depending on the nature of the organization, some email types are less recommended.
- Email timing.
A welcome email should come very quickly, but timing of the remaining emails could be 1, 2, 5, 10 days apart. Earlier triggered emails may come in quicker succession than later emails.
- Content dependencies. A new sign-up who opens and clicks on every new email should be treated differently than a new sign-up who fails to open the onboarding emails. Similarly, the “exit survey” would only go to those who did not upgrade or respond to prior emails. These are examples of a dependency that would have to be built into the email system.
- The content within each email.

Action Items & Next Steps

- Incorporate your email marketing strategy into your content marketing strategy, content calendar, and lead nurturing strategies
- Use your customer personas' interests, motivations, goals, challenges, pain points, etc. (from Workshop #1!) to drive your original and curated email content topics (from Workshop #2! ;-)
- Craft compelling subject lines and email content for your target audience. Remember your keywords and key phrases (from Workshop #3! ;-)
- Review the email marketing articles and free email course on the Additional Resources slide for more details and review several Email Marketing Examples.

Email Deliverability Test Tools

- Mail-Tester
Every time someone visits Mail-Tester.com, they'll see a treehouse with a auto-generated email address listed on it that changes every time you visit the site. Simply send your email to the address listed, then click "Check Your Score." Mail-Tester will give you a free email deliverability score based on the email that was sent to the unique email address. Free users can access the report for seven days. Paid subscribers get unlimited email tests and reports that last for 30 days.
- Mailtrap.io
Each email captured into Mailtrap inbox gets a spam score with details of factors affecting the result. The higher the score, the more likely an email will reach the recipient's inbox. You can also check to see if your domain is featured on common blacklists and it can also help validate HTML and CSS properties that may impact rendering issues.
- Spamcheck
Spamcheck is a simple and free tool that allows you to paste a plain text message into a text box and analyze it for any language that might trigger spam filtering. After placing the text and clicking "Check your score," the software will give you a score out of 10 based on what's included and not included in the email body.
- MxToolBox
MxToolBox allows you to test your email deliverability by sending a test email to ping@tools.mxtoolbox.com. This email address will reply to the email with a linked call to action that says "View your full Deliverability Report." You can then click on the CTA to see a deliverability score and information about what might stopping your email from going into inboxes. If you want to see your result later on, but no longer have the reply email, you can search for the result using your email address on the MxToolBox site.

Thank You!

The screenshot shows an email from Picplum. At the top, it says "picplum". The main body of the email starts with "Hey [redacted]". Below that, it says: "This is just a reminder to add photos to your Picplum account since you have automatic batch delivery enabled. If you add photos now, we'll automatically print them on Wednesday, May 16, 2012. Otherwise, we will simply delay it a few more days." There are two links: "Upload Photos Now" and "Edit Recipients". Below that, it says: "Want to disable automatic batch delivery? Read below for more info". Then, "Want to change or pause this batch?". It explains: "To send this batch now, login and click the Send Now button. If you would like to postpone, hover over the date on the blue bar. Select any date you wish to change this batch's print date." There is a blue bar with a clock icon, "Will print on Wednesday, December 14", and a yellow "Send Now" button. Below the bar is a calendar for "DECEMBER 2011". The calendar shows the days of the week (SU, MO, TU, WE, TH, FR, SA) and the dates. The date "14" is highlighted in a blue bar. Below the calendar, it says "II Pause This Batch". Below that, it says "Example image. Date not related to your batch." Then, "You can disable monthly deliveries on your account page." Below that, "Best, Team Picplum". Then, "P.S. -- Can you do us a favor and invite your friends? We'll give you $5 of credit for every person you invite that sends prints!". Below that, "Share this invite link: <https://www.picplum.com/i/f3286f>". Then, "Or visit the invite page to share on Facebook or Twitter with one click." Below that, "You may update your Picplum notification preferences here". At the bottom, there are links: "Picplum Gifts", "Take the Tour", "Contact Us", "Facebook / Twitter", "Blog".

Feb 24 ☆

Hi Laura,

Thanks again for signing up for x.ai—we think you'll make a great boss for Amy + Andrew, our AI-powered personal assistants.

You know, you can get started TODAY with a 7-day free trial of our paid Professional edition.

START YOUR 7-DAY FREE TRIAL

Why hire Amy + Andrew? Here's our math:

Say you make $75,000 a year and schedule 8 meetings a week.
Our data shows that it takes on average 15 mins. to schedule a single meeting.

So you're spending $8 \times 15 \times 4.25$ or about 9 hrs/month scheduling meetings.
And you make $58/hr = $75,000 (+ 40% tax & overhead)/1,800 (work hours in a year)
Which means you're investing $525 every month into meeting scheduling (yikes!)

At that rate, $39/month (or 1,200% ROI) seems like a bargain. And yeah, we know we're biased ;-)

Keep in mind that, just like any new hire, it may take time for you and your AI assistant to get in sync. We've learned that 13 is the magic number. Have Amy + Andrew schedule 13 meetings for you, and we're pretty sure you won't be able to live without them.

Cheers!
Brian and the x.ai Team

P.S. If you'd rather wait it out for the free Personal edition (capped at 5 meetings per month) you can always check your position on the waitlist HERE.
